

The Goshen Public Library is the heart of our small, rural community. It services school children and seniors and everyone in between. We use the inter library loan service frequently to bolster our meager collection.

Adequate funding is a necessity and a top priority.

Thank you for supporting public libraries.

Betty Cosgrove