

Vote no. The Towns need to consolidate, stop building brand new facilities. I never understood why each Town has its own school. I think some Towns should share facilities which would cut the costs of supporting facilities and administration. Especially in small Towns like Ellington, Somers, Tolland and Stafford.