

I would like to register my support for the above subject bill. In addition, I would like to advocate for additional supports: early assessments/universal screener for dyslexia, for evidence-based instruction that is taught with fidelity, and for specialists who are able to provide the interventions.

Christine Flint
Southbury, CT