

Carrie Coles, Bristol

As empathetic human beings we must pass this bill. These animals were not created for our use, abuse and then finally destruction. All animals have a right by birth for a chance at a health and happy existence .And as humans we do not have the right to rob them of that.

Carrie Coles