

I am in support of the beagle freedom project because it give these animals the chance to live and become family members to the few fortunate people who are able to get these animals. Also important to me is the fact that these animals will no longer be put down when they have outlived their usefulness, giving them a renewed lease on life where they can be loyal canine companions instead of test subjects.

Joshua Hanley

Winsted CT