

Please support HB 5707. These animals have suffered enough, they need good shelter and care. Research animals need to end their horrible lives with the chance to be adopted and live a normal life after suffering. They should not just be killed. when no longer "useful". Thank you. Michele Hart