

Water quality is extremely important to the State's future wellbeing - and its vibrant economy. Bills such as these which impede DEEP efforts to protect our rivers and streams from excessive pollutants on a timely basis just make the problems that much more expensive and difficult to cure later on.

Please drop this bill from further consideration.

Raúl de Brigard