

I am writing in reference to hb-5733. As a citizen of Connecticut I would like to see my tax dollars invested in a more sustainable future. Renewable energy is the wave of the future. Its also a smart investment. several large pension funds, universities, and large municipalities have made such divestments. To divest from fossil fuels isn't feel good folly, its smart decision making.

Thank you.