

To who it may concern:

I have lived in CT for my entire life and love it here! A large part of the state's charm is that it is such a great place to be outdoors. I love biking the airline trails and hiking in the forests, but some areas are truly dangerous for pedestrians and cyclists. Please, help us be a healthier state by giving us good, safe, clean paths and consideration in city planning.

Thank you.

- Leah Varrell