

Dear Fellow Citizens-

I am writing to voice my concern for Keno in Connecticut. In my opinion, this is a desperate measure which preys upon the most vulnerable members of our society.

There must be better options for increasing revenues in our state. I suggest exploring measures that will improve the business climate for legitimate businesses. This will lead to job, dignity and revenue to the State.

Sincerely,

Bruce McGuire