

This is a bad proposition...RI isn't doing any better with the game. The game is just another way to play the numbers in bar rooms and other outlets. Let us get our fiscal priorities in order. Consider making some incentives for Seniors to stay. They leave the State, some unwillingly, for better treatment tax and otherwise; they have much money to contribute with both income and property tax...the backbone of much in CT!

Frederick Connolly