

As a resident of our state for more than fifty five years I have witnessed Connecticut's financial condition steadily deteriorate. We now seem to have reached bottom and are proposing a bill to authorize KENO gambling which may give the State a small amount of revenue while luring those who can least afford it into becoming gambling addicts. I am strongly opposed. When you are in a hole, stop digging! G. Peter Schieferdecker.