

I do not support the proposed addition of Keno gambling in any form. We have enough opportunities to waste money without adding Keno. This is not the kind of revenue we want to support government services.

Regards, John Horan