

We are a far more civilized people than to entertain gambling as a means of new revenue for decades of a failing fiscal policy. Preying on those who are most vulnerable in our society is not an acceptable measure to close a budget gap. Please use the tried and true process of reducing spending, restructuring debt, and living within our means. If you continue on this path, there will be no CT left to govern.

Mark Zacchio