

I am a teacher writing with concern for this bill which would allow Keno gambling in Ct. I am against having more places and ways to gamble in our state. We do not seem to be the "land of steady habits", but rather a land that encourages the undereducated in the "something for nothing" mentality. We need to find a major overhaul rather than a quick fix that on the surface appears to harm no one yet in fact harms our most vulnerable.

Patricia Bayette