

To whom it may concern,

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to express my opposition to bringing Keno to Connecticut.

I would rather see tax dollars spent on our infrastructure rather than establishing video gambling throughout our State, which would harm low income families. The State legislator body needs to learn how to become fiscally responsible before it seeks to collect additional revenue from its taxpayers.

Patrick Arena