

I've learned that Connecticut will pass legislation to permit Keno gambling. I do not support it. I would like to see more effort to balance budgets by reducing spending instead of passing bills to increase tax revenue especially on a gambling business that will cause more low income citizens to reduce their resources even more by spending on gambling. Thanks.

Richard Anderson