

I am dead set against allowing Keno in CT. I would hope our government officials would find better ways to increase revenue and reduce expenses than placing the burden on the backs of gamblers. Can't this state government do anything to attract businesses and if not why? That question and developing solutions to it is where you should focus your efforts!

Sincerely,

Tim Mahon