

Dear Sirs,

I am completely opposed to any state tax revenues being spent in support of the new stadium in Hartford. In the first place, this stadium was not necessary since New Britain stadium already exists. Secondly, public monies should not be used to build these sports stadiums - ever heard of private enterprise? We were originally told that private funds would be used.

Sincerely,
John W. Treleaven