

To Whom It May Concern:

I want to add my voice to the many that oppose the use of State tax dollars to help pay for a new baseball stadium in Hartford.

Connecticut is struggling under a mountain of debt. The proposed budget for the new fiscal year contains draconian cuts to social service programs as well as in other areas in an attempt to balance the budget without another major tax hike.

Under the circumstances, it is shameful that anyone would consider spending a dime of State tax revenue on a sports project.
