

To Whom It May Concern:

Monies raised for the baseball arena in Hartford should come from private contributions not tax payer dollars. When the subject was brought up, the stadium was not going to be built with state taxes. This should not change. Connecticut can't afford to take on another financial burden.

Sylvia Herbstritt
Woodbury