

To whom it may concern:

When you brought the idea for a stadium in Hartford up for a vote, it was with the understanding that no tax money would be used for the project.

We in Connecticut need our taxes used for what they were intended for, and that does not include a new stadium that only a very few want.

Thank You
William Verrastro
Plainville, CT