

Moniz-Carroll, Rhonda

---

From: rmmaselli@optonline.net
Sent: Tuesday, March 17, 2015 7:14 PM
To: JudTestimony
Cc: zRepresentative Fred Camillo; zRepresentative Livvy Floren; zRepresentative Mike Bocchino
Subject: Raised Bill 7015

While this will no doubt be a highly controversial discussion, in the cases of sound mind with a terminal illness, it is morally appropriate to let that individual decide how and when to end his or her life on his or her terms at a time and place of the terminally ill person's choosing.

Clearly perhaps the most important decision a person has to make in his or her lifetime.....a very personal and painful decision..... should best be left in the hands of that terminally ill individual.