Dear Sir's

Enough enough enough!! There are still many people that live in this state that believe in our Constitution and the rights therein. Why do you continue to spit on it, the very document and laws you swore to uphold? Where do you all get off trying to rewrite it? My dad was a cop for over 30 years and still defends ones right to own a gun as long as they are not unlawful with it. I was not born in Russia, or England or China I was born here in the land where our fore fathers were wise enough to allow it's citizenry the opportunity to protect itself from overbearing politicians such as yourself.

I hope you will make the right decision if not, it could be to the detriment of your career. People do remember.

Regards,
Ann
