Subject: Senate Bill 650 - Oppose

I am e-mailing you in response to recent news on SB 650. As written, this is a one-sided attempt to deny the right to possess firearms to those who legally own them and even those with permits to carry. There is no due process and no penalty for a false claim, and no right to IMMEDIATE return of permits and firearms to their rightful owners in this bill. Even the governor and the anti-gun democrats should recognize this bill is just another draconian attempt to deny guns to lawful owners of them. Shame on those who would advocate this bill, especially in it's current lopsided form. There are other laws on the books in CT that already cover this issue, so it would appear to many of us that is primarily another politically motivated move under the guise of protecting a very small (almost negligible?) number of people at the expense of opening up opportunities for massive abuse of this proposed new law. If this small number of people are concerned for their lives there are already procedures and methodologies that are available to them for their protection.

I expect better, more evenhanded lawmaking from the legislature of Connecticut, who are supposed to be representing me as much as the anti-gun people. What are the odds that this might actually happen? I challenge you to do so.
