

HB 5521

The term and level of usage of the Psychology license reflects Doctoral level training. That includes internship(s) and allows for a specialty residency which a master's level person fails to qualify for in training, course work and practical work.

Allowing master's level practice per this bill is a travesty which will do harm to patients.

Dr. Richard Sternberg