

HB 5525
Stanley Plotkin

This is in support of the Act Concerning Cytomegalovirus. This virus causes much congenital deafness and treatment is available if given early. Therefore, any infant who fails a hearing test should be tested for the presence of the virus. I strongly support this idea and education about cytomegalovirus.

Yours truly,
Stanley A Plotkin, MD
Emeritus Professor of Pediatrics, University of Pennsylvania