

5625

Please amend the wording in this bill to continue to allow electrologists to safely and effectively remove unwanted hair. This process does not fit a narrow definition of surgery. It is cost effective and appropriate for the legislature to continue to recognize and support the need for trained electrologists in the State of Connecticut.

Alice Brittain, DMD, LE (State of New Jersey)