

5625

Hello,

I am asking that you would rephrase the wording for the Bill 5625 to remove the possibility that electrologists might be required to abstain from practicing. Electrolysis is not surgery, nor should it ever be grouped with the term "surgery" and this bill needs an addendum in order to allow many practicing electrologists to continue in their profession.

Thank you,

Kendra Boyer, RN