The only thing I really have to say is that consideration needs to be taken when it comes the double standard that this bill will produce. Certain parties are petitioning to remove all flavors from electronic cigarettes. If that is the case then I can not see how you can justify keeping flavored cigars, cigarettes, chewing tobaccos etc. If you want to be fair, that is the only way.

With that being said, I would like to kindly remind everyone that this is America. A land of freedom. I am so tired of y choices and options being taken away by other people. If I choose to use watermelon flavored electronic cigarettes, it is no one's business but my own. It is so frustrating that other people are somehow allowes to dictate what I do with my body. Stop letting other people makes people's decisions. It is un-American.
