Yet another lamebrain idea. CT does not need another casino and you all know it. It's just an attempt to keep every last dollar here in the state so that it can be added to the coffers and spent. Enough was enough a long time ago. Get a clue. It's recently been proven that the vast majority of citizens do not want any more casinos, so do the right thing for once.....do what the people want. We will take note of how you all vote on this issue. Want to get re-elected?

Thank you.
