

Price, Richard

From: ldjolley@comcast.net
Sent: Wednesday, March 11, 2015 9:01 PM
To: pstestimony
Cc: Sen. McLachlan, Michael
Subject: Senate bill 1090

I am writing to express my dismay that our State is considering allowing additional casinos to be built within our borders. Gambling has no redeeming qualities whatsoever. It ruins lives and families. How can you justify balancing the budget with money that comes from such a destructive source? If you care about Connecticut's residents, you will drop this very bad idea.

Lisa Jolley
54 Redwood Lane
East Berlin, CT 06023