

I am writing in support of House Bill 6359 which would entail a fine for leaving snow removal in handicapped spaces. This happens with each and every snow storm, and it leaves my daughter, who is a paraplegic, and I with no place to park. It is literally impossible for her to leave the car to go into her wheelchair unless we have the full space of the handicapped spot. There is no excuse for this - the snow can be dumped elsewhere. If they cannot care enough to keep the handicapped spot accessible, then a fine must be implemented to get them to do the right thing.

Yours,
