

I am firmly opposed to any attempt to toll the roads in this state again.
I remember the days when we were nicknamed "the Toll Booth State".
We are taxed on every commodity and function. Enough already! There is no need to grab quarters from grandmothers as they try to cross the I-91/84 corridors.

Anthony Dembek
Enfield, CT