

To whom it may concern,

I am vehemently opposed to adding tolls to the Connecticut roadways. I would like to see the State Legislators operate within a budget instead of looking for another revenue stream. Tolls will hit the residents with yet another tax/fee/government expense. Furthermore, business will have further reason to leave the state.

Thank you,
Glenn M. Jurgen
Wallingford