

I firmly oppose bringing back any tolls in CT border or otherwise. They impose a time, efficiency and safety burden on all citizens. It is complete lunacy to build an maintain a highway system and then block it with a toll. If money is needed then raise the gas tax instead.

Thanks,
James Murner