

If we allow these tolls on our state boarders it will set a precedent to be eventually placed throughout the state. These tolls require more bureaucracy and are a day to day burden. They should follow the example set by the city of Shelton, its mayor and its representatives in producing a fiscally conservative budget to solve any perceived lack of funds.

Regards,

Lou Kathrakis
Shelton, Connecticut
203-829-2279