

I strongly object to the reinstatement of tolls in Connecticut. Going backwards will put a heavy burden on the already congested flow of traffic in the state and that "clogging up of the works" will contribute to the polluting of the air we breathe.

Patricia Ochman

Stratford