

I am totally against border tolls as a way to increase funding.

The resultant impact on border communities such a Danbury, in terms of local traffic flow, damage to local roadways and delays in travel would be detrimental.

Other creative ways must be sought to correct a statewide issue rather than punishing border cities and towns.

Patrick Sniffin
Danbury,Connecticut