

Please, enough with the outrageous taxes, even more outrageous utility rates, and now proposed additional road tolls for Connecticut. This is becoming a state that long time residents on fixed incomes can no longer afford, even if they outright own their homes.

Peter Muller
New Canaan