

Electronic tolls (that allow cars to pass thru. at 65 mph, as on the N.J. Parkway in Saddle River) would not only provide needed revenue for infrastructure repairs/upgrades but it would also help to control speed and could be used to control congestion by reducing (or eliminating) the tolls at night and/or off peak hours, thereby encourage truckers (at least) to use I95 in off peak hours.
Thank you

Richard Williamson
rdwill@aol.com