

I am vehemently opposed to any proposal that involves the establishment of tolls on any highways in the state of CT.

It is an additional form of taxation on our citizens who are already overburdened with taxes.

The toll booths impose a special hardship to both businesses and individuals located near state borders. They hinder the flow of traffic on our already overcrowded highways, and have resulted in some fatal accidents which paved the way for their removal several years ago.

Richard F. Raymond
5 Kendall Terrace East
Danbury, CT 06811
203-748-1762