

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I cannot emphasize strongly enough how opposed I am to the possible implementation of border tolls in the State of Connecticut.

I have been a Danbury resident since 1975 and can think of nothing more detrimental to Danbury -- and our state -- in terms of cost, road traffic, and the furtherance of business fleeing the state. The vices of highway tolls will FAR OUTWEIGH the virtues.

I urge you, please, DO NOT undertake this measure.

Sincerely,
Thomas R. Libonate
Danbury
