

Please think seriously about the horrid tree trimming along Route 9. Despite the appearance of these vast bare areas where nice foliage once appeared, it will take years for any regrowth (even for new trees planted to look OK). As we drive south from Haddam, it is so unsightly, it is almost sinful. Don't take any more trees from our wildlife (many fine birds).

Sincerely,

Robert and Victoria Harlow

PO box 24

Haddam,CT 06438