

Please do not cut $800,000 in the Fiscal Year 2017 budget.

This could lead to the layoff of scientists and personnel who are critical at the CT Ag Experiment Stations. They are important to the farming community. They are leaders in agriculture, food safety and public health.

It's time to support farming and its future and the preservation of farmland in this state.