

While the overall motive is fine, to make every person who has protected their family antiques a potential criminal is another overstepping of authority. Yes ivory that is newly poached should be seized and owners prosecuted , but punishing owners of older ivory will do nothing for the elephants.

Brian Bartizek
87 Bush Hill rd.
Willimantic CT