

To Whom it may Concern,

I strongly oppose the proposed criminalization of existing ivory products. The proposed law is absurd and can only lead to either unfair prosecutions, contempt for the law, or both. Existing law that grandfathers ivory products beyond a certain age is more than sufficient. Please defeat this foolish initiative.

I should add that I neither own nor aspire to own any ivory products. My interest is solely in elementary fairness and common sense.

Forrest P. Chisman

Private Citizen