

I think it is ridiculous that a bill might be passed where someone could be arrested and fined for owning their grandparents piano with ivory keys. This is legislation of the absurd. These bills need to be thoughtfully considered.

Gail Tinto