

Sir/Madam;

Please find an intelligent way to protect animals without trampling on the rights of antique lovers. Acting against ivory trade that took place years ago does no good today and places an undue and confiscatory burden on private citizens.

Sincerely yours,

John A. Royall