

I think you should be opposed to the part of the bill that includes antique ivory. Getting rid of that doesn't help the elephants at this point, and there are antiques worth saving. The past pieces shouldn't be penalized for what wasn't a law when they were created.

Kay Knight Clarke